

NOTICE

Take a map of North America and draw one line between Bangor, Maine and San Diego.

Draw a second line between Seattle and Miami.

If you live on the first line, get a gun and kill a stranger.

If you live on the second line, give birth to the child of a stranger.

If you live at the intersection of these lines, do both.

Leave a pack of Silent Protest cards at the site of your action.

Then ask yourself, what does the phrase 'Life and death in the land of the free' mean to you?

The Penkiln Burn accepts full responsibility.

Packs of Silent Protest cards can be purchased from penkilnburn.com
